

FRUIT

Star fruit

The star fruit: sliced, it draws pretty five-pointed stars.

The star fruit has thin skin, yellow to orange-yellow when ripe, and prominent ribs that form a star when cut. Its flesh is crunchy and very juicy, with a tangy taste reminiscent of green apple, grape and lemon. It is eaten with the skin on, taking care to trim off the brown edges. Excellent for decoration and salads.

FLAVOUR
Tangy, crisp, green apple and grape

ORIGINS
Brazil, Malaysia
