

FRUIT

Green Satsuma clementine

An early mandarin with green skin, juicy and seedless, with a mild flavour.

The Satsuma is a very early mandarin whose skin stays green or yellow-green while the flesh is ripe. It peels easily, is seedless, and has tender, very juicy, sweet flesh with light acidity. A fruit of the start of the citrus season, much sought after. Its green skin surprises the eye but does not indicate a lack of ripeness.

FLAVOUR

Sweet, juicy, slightly tangy
