

BABY VEGETABLES

Baby pattypan squash

The little saucer-shaped pattypan squash, yellow or green, for an original garnish.

The baby pattypan squash charms with its saucer shape and scalloped edges. We offer it in two varieties, bright yellow and soft green, to serve separately or together for a play of colours. Harvested young, it has thin skin and firm flesh, with a flavour close to courgette and a hint of artichoke. Cook it whole — steamed, sautéed or stuffed — for a graphic touch on the plate.

FLAVOUR
Mild, fine, artichoke note
